PAYNE LOOP

Distance: 5.5 Miles Difficulty: Moderate

Trails: 1. Brooks Cove 2. Fontana Heights Road 3. Turkey Chute

This forest trail is both challenging and interesting with a climb up Turkey Chute and Fontana Heights Road, then followed by great views on Brooks Cove and Piney Ridge. The trail leaves Piney's ridge straight downhill where you then climb out on a wide railroad grade up to a forest access road back into the village. This trail is recommended to be looped in both directions to get the full enjoyment of going up and down Turkey Chute.

GREEN LOOP

Distance: 5 Miles Difficulty: Moderate to Strenuous

Trails: 4. Whiting Rail 5. Lookout Rock 6. First Blood 7. Elmer Hollow

The Whiting section of this trail follows the old Whiting railroad bed built in the early 1900's. The Elmer Hollow section is hand dug with awesome rock bed formations. This entire trail winds through a large timber forest with abundant wildflowers. It is recommended to start at the trailhead on HWY 28, take Whiting (4) to Lookout R. (5) then connect to Elmer (7) which takes you back towards Whiting. Or follow the profile. Elmer (7) from HWY 28 to First Blood (6) then out back to HWY 28 by way of Whiting (4.)

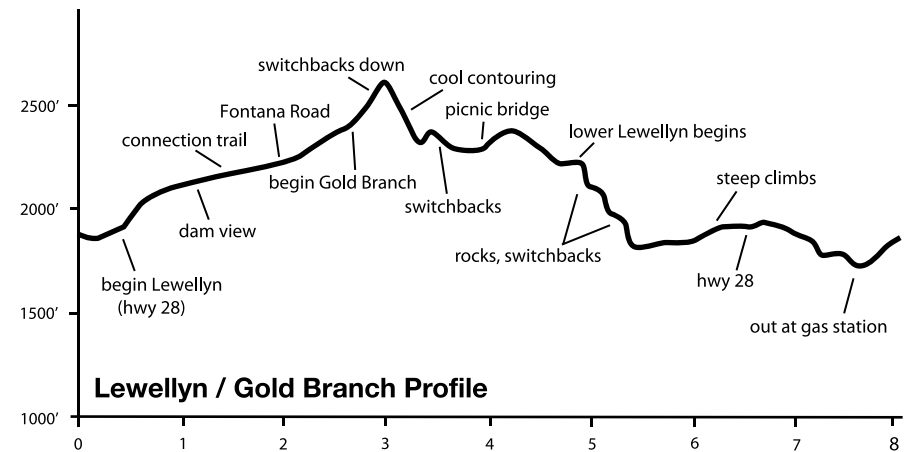

GUNTER LOOP

Distance: 6 Miles Difficulty: Easy to Moderate

Trails: 8. Old Fontana Road 9. Lewellyn Cove 10. Gold Branch 12. Hoor Hollow

Like Whiting trail, the Lewellyn trail follows an old track built by the Whiting Railroad Co. in the early 1900's. However, this trail passes a turn of the century gristmill site. On Gold Branch you will find an incredible sixty-two foot bridge spanning a riparian outcropping. On this trail there are several views of Fontana Dam. Once you come to the three trailheads at HWY 28 take the middle trail (Upper Lewellyn) to the Fontana Road connector, which leads you to Old Fontana Road. At this intersection turn right up the gravel road. Look left at about 0.5 miles for Gold Branch trail. Gold Branch will spit you out at the Fontana Road connector take that small trail back to the Lewellyn intersection and then turn right down Lower Lewellyn for an intense downhill experience. Optional Hoor Hollow is across HWY 28 and will bring you out at the Hellbender station.
